Inclusive Heritage Conference

Friday 30th October, Tate Modern

Following the delight and success of Corali's 'archive' performance at the Royal Festival Hall Secret Southbank event, Corali has been invited to perform at a conference organised by the Heritage Lottery Fund, called Inclusive Heritage.

The conference is aimed at disability and heritage sector leaders to discuss perspectives 20 years on from the Disability Discrimination Act and plan ambitious next steps.

The conference is now full, but you can look at the discussions by checking out the HLF blog. The next HLF blog will feature the full Inclusive Heritage conference summary in early December.
